

The Pacific and Asian Affairs Council presents:

Fall Conference and Chevron Academic WorldQuest Competition

Sat., Nov. 8, 2008
8:00 am – 5:00 pm
UH Campus Center
Ballroom

Fall Conference

8:00-11:45 am

“2008 Presidential Elections and International Relations” Featuring Ed Case

Everyone has their opinions and perspectives! During this exciting election year, we will look at the issues and winning candidates of the election and its impact on Hawaii and international affairs. The speaker’s presentation will lead to an interactive activity that will generate discussion and compare viewpoints.

Academic WorldQuest

12:30-5:00 pm

An exciting team-based game that tests your knowledge of the world in six rounds of competition.
Take the challenge and you could represent Hawaii in Washington, D.C. at the National Academic WorldQuest Competition in April 2009.

Sponsored by

Chevron Hawaii
Dowling Company, Inc.
Hawaii Department of Business, Economic Development, & Tourism
Hawaii Department of Education University of Hawaii Educational Foundations Department

Cost:

Fall Conference $5

WorldQuest $20 per team of 4

Limited to the first 68 registered Teams. Up to 5 teams per school.

Registration deadline is October 30, 2008. To register, submit registration form and event waiver. Forms and further information can be found at www.paachawaii.org

For more information, contact:

Natasha Chappel

Phone: 944-7759

E-mail: hs@paachawaii.org

In celebration of Hawaii International Education Week 2008