

Tie Breakers

Multiple Choice and Free Response

10 points

1. The United States imported what percentage of its total consumer goods from China in 2006?

- A. 10%
- B. 20%
- C. 30%
- D. 40%

2. The Prime Minister of this African country resigned in October 2007 due to unsettled feuding with the President, leading to continuing unknown outcomes to the government.

- A. Chad
- B. Democratic Republic of the Congo
- C. Mali
- D. Somalia

3. In what illegal criminal activity is North Korea NOT involved?

- A. Production and trafficking of opium and heroin worldwide
- B. The manufacture and sales of billions of counterfeit cigarettes
- C. The manufacture and sale of counterfeit designer items
- D. The production of tens of millions of dollars in forged U.S. currency

4. Which unit was added to the Department of Peacekeeping Operations in November 2005?

A. Best Practices Unit

B. Conduct and Discipline Unit

C. Field-Training Unit

D. Mine Action Unit

5. Which city held the Conference for the Protection of the Ozone Layer in 1985?

- A. London
- B. New York City
- C. Paris
- D. Vienna

6. Who is France's new foreign minister, also a co-founder of Doctor's Without Borders?

7. Chinese businessman Zhang Shuhong took his life in August 2007 because of a massive recall in what product in the United States?

8. The _____ Conventions enabled military personnel captured during an armed conflict to receive adequate medical care and sanitary, healthy conditions while in captivity.

9. Name the 6 countries
involved in the Six-Party Talks

10. How many peacekeeping operations around the world does the United Nations currently have?